

SMALL CONTRACTOR BOOT CAMP

The Los Angeles Community College District (LACCD) Small Contractor Boot Camp is a six-week program that provides small contractors with the tools necessary to improve their competitive capacity through a comprehensive, hands-on curriculum. At the conclusion of the 6-week boot camp, small contractors will be ready to bid on BuildLACCD contracts.

BOOT CAMP INFORMATION

The Boot Camp is held at one of the nine District College Campuses.

Enrollment and parking is free!

For more information please contact:

LSEdVinfo@build-laccd.org

Or

(323) 981-7225

www.buildlaccd.org

Curriculum Includes:

- Bonding & Certification
- Access to Capital
- How to Bid on BuildLACCD Contracts
- The Principles of Estimating
- The Principles of Scheduling
- How to Develop a Safety Plan
- Labor Compliance
- Project Labor Agreement (PLA)
- Local Hire Worker Program

BuildLACCD is LACCD's $9.5 billion Building Program. Bond-Funded projects are providing the opportunity for the Los Angeles Community College District to modernize its nine colleges and build more than 40 new structures.

LACCD is committed to the participation of Local, Small, Emerging and Disabled Veteran (LSEdV) firms. The Board of Trustees established a 30% LSEdV participation goal that applies to all BuildLACCD Program contracts.